Description

In a building adorned with stunning marble common areas, this charming two-room apartment offers a spacious living area with an unobstructed view and a separate bedroom. The property boasts impressive high ceilings exceeding three meters, adding to the sense of space and elegance. A small mezzanine provides an additional sleeping area, making it versatile for various living arrangements.

The apartment benefits from a southern exposure, ensuring ample natural light throughout the day. Its location is conveniently close to shops and parks, offering both practicality and leisure opportunities in the surrounding area.
